

AWAEM Early Career Faculty Award

To honor early career female faculty who have shown promise for significant career achievements in emergency medicine through research, education, advocacy, or administration, and/or who have worked to promote the role of women in academic emergency medicine.

Eligibility:

1. Female EM physician
2. Faculty member in a U.S. academic EM department
3. Graduation from residency within 10 years (as of June 2003)

Selection criteria:

1. Evidence of achievements, innovation, and dedication in academic emergency medicine through education, research, advocacy, or administration.
2. Involvement on a national level (e.g., through SAEM committees, research consortiums, or advocacy groups).
3. Activities demonstrating commitment to advancing the role of women in academic emergency medicine.

Required Documentation:

1. Nominee's CV
2. Nomination letter. Nomination letter may be submitted by former or current colleagues, mentors, mentees, or employers. Self-nominations are welcome and encouraged.
3. Letter of support from chair or mentor. If nominator is the chair, one letter addressing items 2 & 3 may suffice.

Other supporting documentation, such as additional letters of support from mentors, is optional and will be reviewed by the Awards Committee on a time-available basis. Submit all materials electronically to Jenny Reifel Saltzberg at jreifelsaltzberg@umem.org

Deadline:

January 31, 2014, 5:00 PM Eastern Standard Time
